

POMEGRANATE THEATRE YOUTH AND EDUCATION

Pomegranate Theatre Youth and Education is all about adding value to the high quality productions and events that are produced at the venue.

There is a dedicated Arts Projects Officer who works alongside the seasonal programmes supporting visiting companies, performers and Pomegranate Theatre and film events in a variety of ways that include:

- Tailor made In-School and Theatre Workshops
- Technical Workshops
- Teacher Resource Packs
- Pre and Post Show discussions
- Back Stage Tours
- Pomegranate Youth Forum
- Young People's Festival
- Pomegranate Youth Theatre
- Pomegranate Summer School
- Outdoor Events
- Work Experience Placements

All of this work will have a focus on supporting out of school learning in addition to providing opportunities for young people to explore a wide variety of issues and topics in a most stimulating, fun and engaging way.

For information of current and forthcoming Pomegranate Youth and Education Projects, please contact Carole Copeland, Arts Projects Officer, carole.copeland@chesterfield.gov.uk or check out the listings on the main Pomegranate Theatre website. Find us on Facebook.